Providing Help, Creating Hope

SECOND COLLECTION MAY 3-4

Many people know about Catholic Charities of Oregon because of one of our services, which we have been offering since 1933.

The reality is that we are involved across Oregon providing for many critical needs and offering life-changing support for the most vulnerable among us.

We combat homelessness, create affordable housing, assist needy families with food and baby supplies, and welcome refugees and migrants. Remember, we can't do any of it without you.

In this effort, parishioners and Catholic Charities of Oregon make a great team. Will you answer the call to help continue our work and fulfill our sacred mission to offer dignity and hope?
